Tuition is billed over a 12 month period as a service to families. However, the school reserves the right to revoke this privilege at any time for accounts which are habitually delinquent or for other situations as deemed necessary. When this happens, the school will provide written notice that all remaining tuition for the year must be paid in full within the time frame specified by the school if the student is to remain in school.

It is not our intent to embarrass or place a student in an awkward situation. Parents or legal guardians are responsible for honoring their financial commitments to the school thereby preventing any possible misunderstanding. It is their responsibility to contact the school if they are unable to make payments by the scheduled due date in accordance with specified terms.

Westbrook Christian School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, or national and ethnic origin.
